

Ed.D. IN EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION & SUPERVISION

We have newly-designed courses, and new faculty to lead the charge and support candidates in the fully online platform. Our face-to-face program will continue to offer hybrid and online courses.

PROGRAM DESIGN

- COHORT MODEL Provides candidate support and guided advising
- INSTRUCTIONAL APPROACH Includes problem-based learning across a technology platform that facilitates online learning
- FACULTY EXPERTISE Taught by professors and instructors who have school leadership and district-level experiences, and are engaged in K-12 research
- ACCESSIBILITY Uses Blackboard as the instructional platform
- CONVENIENCE Flexible online learning to support the working professional

PROGRAM OFFERINGS

- Ed.D. (60 Hours)
- Can craft major electives to satisfy an academic area of concentration

ADMISSION INFORMATION

- Apply today <http://www.vsu.edu/admissions/apply/graduate-apply/index.php>

Personal Statement | Writing Sample | Professional Letters Recommendation (3)
CV/ Resume | Transcripts | GRE Scores

PROGRAM INFRASTRUCTURE

- Fully online with a face-to-face summer residency the third week of June every summer for three (3) years
- Two (2) courses/fall and spring semesters
- Three (3) courses during the summer sessions
- Designed to be completed in three (3) years
- Dissertation in Practice required upon completion of coursework

ACCREDITATION

- CAEP (Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation)
- SACSCOC (Southern Association Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges)

ACHIEVEMENTS & ENDORSEMENTS

- The online Ed.D. in Educational Administration & Supervision is Virginia State University's first online doctoral program.
- The program prepares education leaders and scholarly practitioners to be knowledgeable about organizational systems.
- Applicants must be engaged in research to improve policy and practice and be attuned to issues of equity.
- The program is designed for working professionals, with an earned master's degree and relevant professional experience.

