At Virginia State University,

we provide a rich cultural environment where our students enjoy an outstanding support system. We are family-oriented and results-driven. Our students are taught and nurtured by caring faculty who are accomplished in their fields of expertise. Our academic programs deliver distinctive, responsive, and innovative offerings that effectively prepare leaders and scholars to meet the demands of a global society and workforce.

"Your pathway to GREATER Happens Here."

About Virginia State University

We are a public historically black land-grant university featuring a 231-acre main campus plus Randolph Farm, a renowned 412-acre agricultural research facility. The campus is located about 20 minutes south of Richmond, VA in the village of Ettrick in Chesterfield County. VSU is located just minutes off Interstate 95 and Interstate 85. The Richmond Airport is a short 30-minute drive to campus and the Amtrak train station is a five-minute walk from campus. Virginia State University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award baccalaureate, masters and doctorate degrees.

Virginia State University Select Points of Pride

Virginia State University started an innovative program to address the Richmond and Petersburg teacher shortage. The VSU program offers free tuition to graduate students who agree to work in those school divisions after obtaining their degree.

Virginia State University received a $1.45 million grant to assist enrolled student-parents (students who are also parents) with childcare costs. The funds will be used to offer student-parents access to affordable childcare services both on and off campus.

Virginia State University was selected as one of six Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) across the country to take part in a research and design project focused on building an integrated framework for digital learning at HBCUs. The project is a first-of-its-kind, $2.5 million Digital Learning Infrastructure (DLI) initiative led by Complete College America (CCA) and supported by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation (BMGF).

Virginia State University created the VSU Center for Creative and Entertainment Arts to provide academic offerings, research, workforce development, and entrepreneurship in the arts.

Virginia State University received a portion of a $1 million Health Innovation and Research Grant. VSU is one of five HBCUs in the country to be awarded $200K for visionary projects focusing on health-related research. The Propel Center grant supports faculty and students world-class research and innovation opportunities.
